MUSICAL TREAT AT LAST NIGHT'S CONCERT

By far the greatest musical treat of the season was heard last night at the benefit concert for the organ fund of St. Andrew's. Miss Miriam Hall was the star of the evening. Her violin playing ranks with the best ever heard in Honolulu.

Miss Hall is one of those, rarely met with, who excel in more than one line. In addition to being a fine violin player, she is also one of the three lead ing women tennis players of the United States.

She is also a good swimmer, skater and horsewoman. Perhaps it is this unusual versatility which gives her vi olin playing a deeper note, a greater power, than is ordinarily observed in women who play the violin.

The first number on the program was a trio by Gade, the famous Norwegian composer. It is unquestionably one of the gems in trios, and its rendition on this occasion was a delight.

Miss Hall's violin solos were, all of them, not only played in a masterly manner, but showed remarkably good judgment in their selection, none of them having a tiresome moment, and each one seeming better and more de lightful than the last.

Mrs. Herzer was in splendid voice.
She gave the "Voi lo Sapete," from "Cavalleria Rusticana," with such spirit and dramatic fervor that one could almost imagine oneself listening to grand opera.

Later on in the program she sang two other numbers—"The Birth of Dawn," by Leon, and "Lady Spring," by Harris. These evoked such enthusi astic applause that Mrs. Herzer was forced to give an encore.

Mrs. Lindsay's singing of "My De sire," by Nevin, and "Ständchen," by Strauss, was delightful. The Strauss number was especially interesting. It is composed in the free modern style and, though unusually difficult, is really beautiful.

The lovely melodies and the gorge ous accompaniment match each other in striking manner. Mrs. Lindsay's singing of this difficult and somewhat bizarre song can not be too highly praised.

Miss Lloyd played Schubert's "Min uetto" in a highly creditable manner.
The audience was highly appreciative, and it is regrettable that Miss Lloyd could not be induced to give an encore.

While the work of the individual ar tists is always the most noticeable, people are sometimes apt to overlook a part of the work on which all the rest may be said to depend. That work is the work of the accompanist.

Another fact in this connection is that the better the accompanying the less obvious it is apt to be. Mrs.
Peck's work at the piano, from the Gade trio to the final Godard numbers, was masterly; it would be useless to say more.

In every way, then, the concert given last night at the Davies Memo rial Hall was one of the most satis

CITY FATHERS TO MEET LESS

It has been decided by the board of supervisors that it will not be neces sary for them to meet more than twice a month and hereafter they will con vene on the first and third Tuesdays of the month only.

At a special meeting called yester day, the usual routine matters were disposed of and the payrolls passed.
The county attorney was requested to draw up a form for a lease of three rooms in the Kapiolani block which are to be occupied by the road depart ment. The rental will be $25 a month.

County Attorney Cathcart made a verbal application for a two months' leave of absence, which was granted.
He will leave for the Coast on the next transport, if possible, and will visit his old home.

The supervisors will hold a caucus Saturday afternoon to discuss the gen eral appropriation bill. It is expected that several important new matters will come before them and be discus ed at that time.

GROWERS OF RUBBER TO HOLD MEETING

The Hawaiian Rubber Growers' As sociation will meet in convention in this city on December 6, and a very interesting meeting is expected. It is anticipated that there will be from twenty to twenty-five rubber growers present from Maui and Hawaii.

The meeting will be held in the rooms of the chamber of commerce, which have been tendered to the association for the purpose. The convention will conclude with a banquet in the evening.

The program for the convention is as follows:
Reading of statistics; Hevea or Ceara in Hawaii; intercropping; the rubber situ ation in Hawaii; rubber and the small farmer; rubber and reforestation; tap ping and marketing of rubber.

TOMORROW LAST DAY OF BREWERY CONTEST

The Honolulu Brewing and Malting Company calendar contest will close to morrow and any replies received after five o'clock Saturday evening will not be accepted.

Manuscripts have been coming in rapidly in the last few days, but there is still time for anyone who intends making a try for the two prizes of $25 and $15 for the best story about the dogs. As previously announced the pictures can be seen in the windows of the Honolulu Drug Company, Myrtle Cigar Store and Real Estate Exchange and all stories should be mailed to the Honolulu Brewing and Malting Com pany, calendar contest, Honolulu, T.H.

THE LITTLE WORLD

Will be at home at
THE HOPP SALESROOMS,
King Street,
ON FRIDAY, 3rd, and Saturday 4th, of December.
And ready to welcome its Honolulu friends.

These little people have been dressed for the occasion by the ladies of St.
Clements' Parish in a variety of dainty costumes; everything from the most ex quisite Parisian lawn down to the simplest form of Waikiki bathing suits.
There will also be on hand a number of pieces of old English furniture, graceful in design and perfect in proportion, which will invite your in spection, demand your admiration, and in fact everything will be there which is necessary for miniature housekeeping, even the larder is supplied with de licious candy, made by the same skillful and versatile fingers. This is an op portunity not to be missed.
